ZOOMMED IS NOW TRADING ON THE TSX-VENTURE

Montreal, August 8, 2005 – ZoomMed inc. (« ZoomMed »), TSX Venture: ZMD. We are proud to announce that ZoomMed is now trading on the TSX-Venture under the symbol ZMD.

ZoomMed is presently developing a new electronic tool, aiming at changing the way; drugs are prescribed and dispensed throughout Canada. This handheld prescribing system device, equipped with tools such as therapeutic information as well as medication interaction advisor, will enable doctors to fulfill prescriptions and to electronically transmit them in a secure mode. This user friendly and free Web product, designed for doctors, will use the latest "Pocket Pc" technologies.

Furthermore, ZoomMed is a reintegration, support and valorization company for medical and laboratory equipment. In this respect, it insures the purchase of used equipment and its refecton for resale purposes on the market.

ZoomMed also offers a multilingual Web site, eBay® style, specialized in the sale and the purchase of medical equipment, therefore conferring to its customers the possibility of finding equipment, parts and services according to their needs. This software solution also makes it possible to carry out an effective inventory management, preventive and curative maintenance, contract services as well as a document management system.

The TSX Venture Exchange has neither approved nor accepts any responsibility with respect to the veracity or exactitude of this press release.
